Volunteers Make it Happen!

The greatest part of becoming a Friend of False Cape State Park is enjoying this beautiful, natural, pristine, and fascinating park in the most remote location of southeast Virginia. And learning the history of this park is cool too!

"I never knew how much fun volunteering could be!"

Did you Know?

The Friends Group members get to help lead interpretive programs such as kayak tours, tram tours, guided hikes, and more! Members also greet guests at the visitor center and assist in communicating park needs to the public and governmental officials.
